Re: Petition to Receive Further Consideration for Undue Burden Exemption
From Closed Captioning Rules : Case Identifier: CGB-CC-0814

Dear Secretary:

Please find the additional information requested to receive further consideration for undue burden exemption from closed captioning rules. In accordance with 47 C.F.R. 79.1 (f)(4), the original and two copies are being provided.

1. Documentation of our current 2012 profit and loss statement.
2. Closed captioned programs of "One-On-One" would have to be outsourced for production. Post production cost would be $250.00 to $350.00 for each 28 minute program for a total cost of $13,000.00 to $18,200.00 a year. The captioning requirement would ultimately cause Dove Song Ministries to terminate the program thus, resulting in a loss of viewers and supporters who would no longer be able to view the program.
3. Dove Song Ministries has sought closed captioning assistance from our video programming distributor WLFG-TV in Abingdon, Virginia. President of the station Mr. Mike Smith informed us as per FCC Closed Captioning exemptions found in C.F.R Title 47, vol 4., 79.1 WLFG is not required to provide closed captioning. CTN also denied our request for financial assistance stating they air our program at various times other than our contracted time and they cannot offer further assistance.
4. Dove Song Ministries has reached out to our current sponsors and asked for additional support for closed captioning. These efforts have not been successful. We have enclosed three letters from sponsors that were received after our attempt for additional revenue.

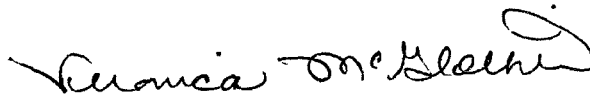

We have no other means to provide closed captioning other than our donors, as we are not pastors of a church with a congregation, but a small non-profit 501-C evangelistic ministry.

Dove Song Ministries respectfully submits that the basis for its captioning exemption request is based on undue burden exemptions in the Commission's 2006 Memorandum Opinion & Order, "In Re Anglers for Christ Ministries, Inc. & New Beginning Ministries Petitions for Exemption from Closed Captioning Requirements, CGB-CC-0005 and -0007, 21 Rcd 10094 (September 12, 2006)". In light of that precedent, and the facts set forth in this letter, we respectfully request that Dove Song Ministries be granted an undue burden exemption from the captioning requirements for "One-On-One".

In Support of our request we are providing a Declaration Under Penalty of Perjury in support of the facts set forth in this exemption letter.

Should the commission require additional information, please contact the undersigned individual.

Respectfully:

To Whom It May Concern:

I am so very honored to be involved with Dove Song Ministries and the work that they are doing. Dove Song Ministries is reaching out to the lost and the hurting through the use of media. Their ministry has touched and changed so many lives.

They have reached out for assistance concerning closed captioning. Unfortunately due to the economy under the current administration, I am not financially able to assist them.

Sincerely

I'm writing concerning the Closed Captioning of Dovesong Ministry's program One-On-One. We have been contributors for this program over the past 5 years and believe in this wonderful program and how it is helping the hurting and reaching desperate people.

They have asked us to help fund the Closed Captioning but unfortunately due to our current administration and the economy they have created, our company can't contribute at this time.

Regards,

Sarah B. Rose
